Description of the Award

This award is presented to the chapter with the most outstanding chapter newsletter. A newsletter can be a traditional, printed publication, an electronically delivered one, or even a series of e-mail messages. Judging is based on the following criteria:

1. Does the newsletter keep chapter members informed about upcoming chapter, regional and international activities and programs? (30%)
2. Does the newsletter keep members informed about completed chapter, regional, and international activities? (25%);
3. Is the newsletter easy-to-read and easy to find information (20%);
4. Is the newsletter well-written and engaging? (15%)
5. Does the technical quality of the writing and edit reflect well on the chapter? (10%)

Entry Specifications

In an essay of 500 words or fewer describe your chapter's goals for its newsletter and how you believe your newsletter met those goals. Indicate in your essay how many issues of the newsletter were published and, by category, to which they were sent (e.g., to members, all chapters in the region, regional officers, etc.). Your entry must be accompanied by one copy of each issue published since the last Regional Convention.
